

INDEX TO VOLUME VIII.

1848.

ECCLESIASTICAL AFFAIRS.

ORIGINAL ARTICLES.

POLITICS OF CHRISTIANITY:—

20. Secondary Punishment, 1.
21. Colonial Government, 17.
22. Foreign Relations—War, 29.
- Supplemental and explanatory note on War, 45.
23. International Intercourse—Diplomacy, 61.
- A word more on War, 61.
24. Political Monasticism, 77.
25. Everything in its place, 93.
26. Conclusion, 109.

Address to the Reader, 1.

- English Archiepiscopacy, 93.
An attempt to kick away the ladder, 109.
The Question of the Age viewed in the light of passing events, 125.
Whig Guilt, 145.
Time for preliminary skirmishes, 166.
Take care of the baby! 185.
Further inflation of the great sham, 205.
A grasp at the grave-yards, 210.
Lawn sleeves that will not wash, 225.
Ordination, 24.
Pity the poor, persecuted bishops, 245.
"I can't get out," 265.
How to hunt independent clergymen, 285.
Dissenting colleges, 28.
The British Anti-state-church Association, 305.
Killed by the newspapers, 325.
The State's pet doll, 345.
The Protestant Association, 34.
Sites (Scotland) Bill, 365.
Leaves from the enemy's book, 38.
Endowment for religious purposes, 385.
The longevity of a nuisance, 405.
Chafing under the yoke, 425.
Claw me, and I'll claw you, 445.
The ecclesiastical glass-house, 465.
The royal gift to poor dissenting ministers, 485.
The bishop blight in the Church, 51.
A foray for the faith, 505.
Civic consistency, 525.
Another bubble burst, 54.
Richard Winter Hamilton, 545.
The mark of the collar, 56.
Great things seen through tiny chinks, 565.
Episcopal rebels, 585.
The confessed failure, 59.
Persecution for pelf, 605.
An apologist of "Persecution for pelf," 61.
Fee'd in spite of themselves, 625.
State alms to dissenting paupers, 645.
The approach of the grand sham, 665.
The purchase of quiet, 685.
A breakwater for bankrupt landlordism, 705.
A popular buttress for an unpopular church, 725.
A surplised police, 745.
Unholy confederacies, 76.
Conscience versus law, 765.
The "English Review" and the Anti-state-church Association, 785.
Wool-dyed State-churchism, 805.
Certainty of success, 825.
Conscience a law—the answer, 84.
Down with the dust, 845.
The prayer for the cholera, 86.
The anomaly made more anomalous, 865.
The mistrusted purse-bearer, 885.
Subsidising the sects, 905.
The London Missionary Society and State grants, 92.
Church taxes—our last words, 925.
Teaching by pictures, 926.
A clear case of "No go," 945.
Mistrust of principle avenged, 965.
The voice of the seceder, 985.
Baptist Noel's Essay on the Union of Church and State, 99.

ANTI-STATE-CHURCH MOVEMENT.

- PUBLIC MEETINGS.—Chelmsford, 30; Southampton Association, 32; Coggeshall, 45; Braintree, 46; Gravesend, 47; Haleshead, 48; Witham, 49; Billericay, 62; Maldon, 63; Colchester, 64; Stockport, 94; Bolton, 95; Liverpool, 96; Manchester, 97; Sheffield, 97; Rochdale, 110; Preston, 111; Blackburn, 112; Gloucester, 111; Southampton, 110; Bath, 125; Bristol, 126; in Gloucestershire, 127; Todmorden, 145; Conference at Leicester, 185; Meeting at Leeds, 187; Bury, 206; Bacup, 226; North Walsham, 266; East Dereham, 267; Downham, 267; Lynn, 267; the Scottish Anti-state-church Association, meetings at Edinburgh, 268, 269; Norwich, 286; Annual Meeting of the Council in London, 305; Meeting at Market Harborough, 307; Annual Meeting in London, 325; Public Breakfast at Edinburgh, 346; Meeting at the Hanover-square Rooms, 426; Winton, 430; Reading, 466; Hammersmith, 505; Uxbridge, 505; Great Meeting at Finsbury Chapel, 766; Newport, 786; Pontypool, 805; Brecon, 805; Meetings in Cornwall, 787, 805, 826, 828; York, 788, 847; in Derbyshire, 806; in South Wales, 826; Meeting and Breakfast at Cardiff, 846; Discussion at Tavistock, 826; Taunton, 846; Kennington, 865; Rochdale, 868; Birmingham, 906; Lincoln, 906; Boston, 906; Kettering, 906; Market Harborough, 926; Derby, 906; Nottingham, 906; Leicester, 927; Hackney, 946; in Bucks and Oxon, 946; Peckham, 988.
- LECTURES.—At the City of London Literary Institution, Mr. Tillet's, 173; Mr. Burnett's, 206; Mr. Miall's, 226; Mr. Hinton's, 241; Mr. Mursell's, 253; North Walsham, 32; Dalketh, 110; Coleford, 127; Bradford, 165, 188; Chorley, 207; Newport Pagnell,

- ib.; Burnley, 226; Wigan, 266; Accrington, 346; Brentford, 446, 533; Stirling, 466; Luton, 507; Gloucester, 761; Burton-on-Trent, 787; Ilkeston, 787; Ripley, 788; Alfreton, 787; Dudley, 828; Nareth, 828; Perth, 828; Derby, 846; Wolverhampton, 847; Stourbridge, 847; Burton-on-Trent, 847; Halifax, 885; Walsall, 885; Bilston, 886; Rugeley, 885; Birmingham, 927; Bridge-north, 885; Smethwick, 946; Long Buckley, 946; Baybrook, 946; Harpole, 946; Aldminton, 965; Thrapstone, 965; Lynn, 966; Peterborough, 988; Wisbeach, 988.

- CHURCH-RATES.—Darlington, 19; Ball Court decision, 45; Worcester, 146; Manchester, 165; Margate, 165; Carlisle, 207; Heigham, 207; Blockley, 268, 288; Stoke Newington, 293; St. Austell, 308, 467; Witham, 366; Dudley, 466; Leicester, 506; Stepney, 507; Melbourne, 526; Cheshunt, 666; Kingston-on-Thames, 588; St. George the Martyr, Southwark, 608, 907, 929, 947; Heanor, 947; Wrexham, 747; Rochdale, 769, 966; Whitley, 789; St. Mary, Whitechapel, 907; Mitcham, 930; St. Martin, Ludgate, 940.

- MISCELLANEOUS.—The decision in Simonds' church-rate case, 17; Restitution of tithes, 45; Mr. Barfitt's lectures, 47; Norfolk and Norwich Religious Liberty Society, 47; seizure for church-rates at Maidstone, 78; new State Church in Australia, 97; State pay in the colonies, 166; Edinburgh Voluntary Church Association, 188; Mr. Gardner's speech on the Jewish Disabilities bill, 246; Voluntary movement in Canada, 349; the Northampton tithe-case, 366, 687, 907; church-rates—important decision, 405; endowment of the Irish Roman Catholic clergy, 406, 625, 653, 685, 725, 746, 768, 806, 966; rousing for ministers' stipend in Edinburgh, 446; a clerical portrait, 46; a successor of the Apostles, 46; the annuity-tax in Edinburgh, 467, 493, 586, 606, 626, 645, 761, 793; the Annuity-tax League, 705; the Clonmel Regium Donum case, 526; the Free Church and endowments, 566, 768; the English Regium Donum, 606, 665; a voice from Canada, 608; Town Council sectarianism, 646; Synod of Canada and State grants, 647; the Irish Regium Donum, 666; our ecclesiastical expenditure, 66; Miss Coutts's bishop, 746; the State Church in the West Indies, 788; the Irish Roman Catholic bishops and endowments, 788; repudiation of State endowments in Canada, 788; the church of the aristocracy—practical illustrations, 806; a crusade for Easter offerings at Haslingden, 828; workings of the State Church in Wales, 867; church taxes, 928; secession of the Hon. and Rev. Baptist W. Noel, 928, 971; Roman Catholic endowment—meeting at Glasgow, 929; London Missionary Society, 945; Newcastle and Gateshead Religious Freedom Society, 996.

GENERAL NEWS.

- The Hampden controversy, 2, 19, 30, 67; confirmation of the Bishop of Hereford, 21; the Irish professorship question, 3; denunciations from the altar, 10; confirmation of the Bishop of Manchester, 19; consecration ditto, 48; liberty of conscience in Glengarry, 19; the Bishop of Exeter and his victim, 31; dissenters' marriages, 31; the Spitalfields weavers, 32, 111, 306; persecution in the Canton de Vaud, 39, 51; Welsh educational committee, 35; Jewish disabilities—oath for the Jews, 34, meeting at Southwark, 40; Mr. Waite's psalmody exercises, 40, 51, 67, 89, 115, 262, 308, 367, 389, 990; Court of Arches, 48, 69; the Queen v. the Archbishop of Canterbury on the Hampden controversy, 48, 62; the judgment on ditto, 67; the Sunday-school Union and the Minutes of council on Education, 50; the colonial bishoprics, 63; the French Baptists, 77; the Free Church and Government education, 78; the Bible in England, 146; the Bishop of Exeter's victims, 208; Mr. Baker's lectures at Maldon, 208; Suffolk Congregational Union, 262; the Bishop of Exeter and the Rev. Mr. Shore, 268; proposal for an union of Coward, Homerton, Cheshunt, and Highbury colleges, 287; the Bishop of Manchester v. Gutteridge, 292; the Bishop of Exeter and the Rev. Mr. Gorham, 307, 327, 487, 467, 506, 527, 687, 879; gross case of clerical imposture, 308; religious accommodation in Manchester, 308; the Baptist Missionary Society, 313; prize essays on the Sabbath by working men, 322; preaching in unconsecrated buildings, 406; annual incomes of religious and benevolent institutions, 410; destruction of Park chapel, 421; the uses of colonial bishoprics, 425; Lady Hewley's charity—decision, 426; Primitive Methodist Conference, 447; Evangelical Alliance, 467; new independent chapel, Manchester, 467; church property and the Russells, 487; Cheshunt college anniversary, 488; the dissenting deputies, 513; New Connexion of General Baptists, 528; the Wesleyan Conference, 565, 587, 608; Sunday-school Union conference, 588; a clerical warming-pan, 608; new congregational church, Kentish-town, 627; marriages at churches and chapels, 631, 706; how clergymen may escape from the bishop, 769; Hampshire Association, 770; Methodist discipline, 789; Phariseism, 790; jubilee of Scottish congregational churches, 829; renewal of the surplised warfare in Exeter, 847, 867; jubilee of the Church Missionary Society, 849; the ecclesiastical commission, 886; a sketch of the origin and progress of religion in Taunton, 886; aggregate wealth of the Established Church, 887; Young Men's Chris-

- tian Association, 890; the Tractarians at Plymouth, 947; Mr. Shore at Leamington and Warwick, 947; opening of Bloomsbury chapel, 948; the "Pearl of Days," 948; the episcopal fund and episcopal spoliation, 966; more bishops, 948; church reform, 948.

- FOREIGN.—Ecclesiastical Affairs on the Continent, 506, 546, 646, 666, 686, 706, 726, 746, 806, 867.—The monastery of St. Bernard, 39; the Church and State question in France, 146, 366, 406, 445; in Germany, 307; recognition of Protestantism in Turkey, 207; the eve of the Synod of Paris, 707; massacre of missionaries, 721.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

- GENERAL.—49, 64, 79, 111, 128, 166, 208, 227, 268, 311, 351, 370, 389, 407, 430, 447, 467, 488, 508, 528, 547, 567, 588, 609, 627, 647, 667, 687, 708, 727, 747, 769, 790, 807, 829, 849, 868, 887, 908, 930, 989.

- PUBLIC MEETINGS.—Baptist Home Missionary Society, 290; Baptist Irish Society, 308; Baptist Union, 309; Bible Translation Society, 309; Baptist Missionary Society, 310; Hull Sunday School Union, 311; Wesleyan Missionary Society, 328; British and Foreign Bible Society, 328; Sunday School Union, 328; Religious Tract Society, 329; British Society for Propagating the Gospel among the Jews, 330; Church Missionary Society, 347; British Missions, 347; London Missionary Society, 348; British and Foreign Sailors' Society, 349; British and Foreign School Society, 350; Congregational Union of England and Wales, 350, 793, 808; Congregational Board of Education, 367; Ragged School Union, 367; Anti-Slavery Society, 368; Missions of the Free Church of Scotland, 369; Hanserd Knolly's Society, 369; Universal Brotherhood, 369; Peace Society, 369; Aggregate meeting of Sunday-school Teachers, 769.

- ORDINATION AND RECOGNITION SERVICES.—Plymouth, 49; Rawden, 64; Monmouth, 79; Studley, 111; Colly and Bridgend, 128; Loughborough, 166; Halifax, 208; East Retford, 289; Pembroke, 311; Preston, 311; Stockport, 311; Ovenden, 351; Hinckley, 351; Woodside, 351; Brigham, 389; Wotton, 407; Lewes, 448; Tenby, 528; Shipley, 589; Northampton, 433; Billericay, 447; Weldon, 447; Lewes, 448; Chorley, 448; Middlewich, 647; Dublin, 667; Kingston, 687; Hall-Fold, 708; Chichester, 727; Salemside-Nook, 747; Haverhill, 747; Leamington, 747; Stansfeld, 747; Thames Ditton, 790; Frome, 807; Cork, 807; Upminster, 807; Aberdeen, 807; Padsey, 807; Greenwich-Road, 807; Liverpool, 826; Preston, 830; Wimbome Minister, 849; Whitechurch, 849; Lymington, 849; Crediton, 868; Bristol, 908; Shrewsbury, 966; Linton, 989.

POLITICAL ARTICLES.

- Summary, 8, 28, 36, 52, 68, 84, 100, 116, 134, 154, 174, 194, 214, 234, 254, 274, 294, 314, 334, 354, 374, 394, 414, 434, 454, 474, 494, 514, 534, 554, 574, 594, 614, 634, 654, 674, 694, 714, 734, 754, 774, 794, 814, 834, 854, 874, 894, 914, 934, 954, 974, 994.
- The old year out and the new year in, 8.
Probabilities of an invasion calculated from the state of parties in France, 9.
Sectarian bribery in Canada, 10.
The beggar malgré lui, 23.
The new judge-made law for church-rate recusants, 23.
Clanking the chains of slavery, 37.
West Indian projects, 52.
Claims of the press, 53.
The mission of Elihu Burritt, 68.
The Manchester manifesto, 69.
Removal of Jewish disabilities, 84.
A glance at constitutional politics, 85.
Welcome assistance, 101.
Signs of advancing spring, 101.
A word and a blow—and the blow first, 101.
Political relations with Rome, 101.
The war budget, 116.
O'Connell's description of Whiggery verified, 117.
French lessons for English statesmen, 135.
Military despotism as the child of revolution, 135.
Reception of royal culprits, 135.
English tenant-right, 136.
Up with the people's banner, 151.
The flight of Louis Philippe, 155.
French republican proclamations, 156.
The Whigs and the revenue, 156.
Down with Whiggery, 156.
The real danger of the day, 174.
Ignorant impatience of the aristocracy for patronage, 175.
The Times newspaper, 175.
Too tight! too tight! 194.
Justice prevents revolutions, 195.
The alternative—do, or be done, 214.
Learning our lesson, 215.
Are we at war? 215.
Loyalty—the aristocracy, 215.
Thunderclouds, 234.
A spark in the distance, 235.
Magistrates and constables, 235.
The aristocracy and the Prince of Prussia, 236.
The leaves of the ybil, 254.
Truncheons and votes, 255.
One million per week for the aristocracy, 255.
Lamartine, 255.
Luminous nebulousity, 274.
The People's Charter and the Chartists, 275.
The people's party in Parliament, 275.

- Our sham representative system, 276.
What are we to drive at? 294.
The form of prayer, 295.
The Whigs are Obstructives, 30.
Meeting of the Anti-bribery Society, 30.
Centre of gravitation to a people's party, 314.
The Chartists and their cry, 315.
England's pet dynasties, 315.
The People's League, 335.
Prophecy smooth things, or be gagged, 335.
Look before you leap, 354.
The failure of physical force, 355.
Lord John Russell's promise and performance on the interference of peers, 355.
Essence and accident, 374.
The progress of free institutions in Europe, 375.
Dame Partington, 394.
Homoeopathic reform, 395.
The affairs of the Continent, 395.
Who is behind the curtain? 414.
The Spanish business, 415.
Protection to players, 415.
Facts versus fallacies, 415.
Ragged-schools and State-education, 435.
The wolf—the wolf, 435.
A response without enthusiasm, 454.
The suspended writs, 455.
The sugar-growing croakers, 455.
The reform debate, 474.
Whig gradual reform, 475.
Parliamentary child's play, 475.
Penny wise and pound foolish, 475.
The tragedy in Paris, 491.
The Red Republic, 495.
Purity on compulsion, 495.
German nationality, 495.
The delinquent judged by himself, 514.
State-education fairly developed, 518.
The temporary lull, 534.
"The massacre of the innocents," 535.
The presidential election in the U. S., 535.
The strait-waistcoat for Ireland, 554.
Supplement to a standing army, 555.
A lion in the way, 574.
Colonial misrule, 575.
The Whigs as men of business, 576.
Justice to Ireland, 594.
Calls for the conscientious, 595.
The contemplated diversion, 614.
The pacification of Europe, 615.
Sessional stock-taking, 634.
The national expenditure, 635.
Ripening for ruin, 654.
A call for the pruning-knife, 655.
A journal hunt in Jamaica, 656.
Broad-and-cheese interpreters of European movements, 674.
A new system of exchange, 675.
How public money is spent, 676.
Lamartine, 694.
The universal solvent, 695.
Centralization in Ireland, 695.
Liberty, like happiness, a growth, not a manufacture, 714.
Saddled with a bishop, 715.
The peace congress at Brussels, 734.
The death of Lord George Bentinck, 735.
The storm at the Cape, 735.
Free-labour cotton, 755.
The free-soil movement in America, 755.
Smith O'Brien, 774.
"Satan reproving sin," 775.
The freehold franchise, 794.
The second Vienna insurrection, 81.
The cholera, 814.
The condition of Ireland considered, 815.
The expected West Riding election, 834.
Working men's institutions, 835.
The peace demonstrations, 854.
The working classes and religious institutions, 855.
Capital punishment, 85.
Reactionary commotions, 874.
Railway confessions and desires, 875.
The Berlin struggle—moral force, 894.
The clock that won't strike, 895.
A contest after all, 914.
Pull away my lads, 915.
The Roman revolution, 915.
Latitudinarian intolerance, 934.
Crime in Great Britain, 935.
Wearing round, 954.
Hope for Ireland, 955.
France—the presidential election, 974.
Mr. Cobden on state-education, 975.
More shoulders to the wheel, 975.
Official patronage—its evils and remedy, 976.
The year 1848, 994.
The national budget—Mr. Cobden at home, 995.

SPIRIT OF THE PRESS.

- Birmingham Journal.*—Recklessness in the public expenditure, 456.
Bradford Observer.—The administration of justice acts, 796.
Daily News.—The French revolution, 136: the duty of the middle class—necessity for reform in the House of Lords, 236: electoral districts, 356: Mr. O'Connor's land scheme, 476: the first Reform division, 516: revelation of the marriage register, 572: the supplementary budget, 677: the land monopoly in Ireland, 755: the taking of Vienna and our reactionary press, 896.
Douglas Jerrold's Newspaper.—The triumph of defeat, 38: Lord Brougham a Jew, 297: a bishop's conscience money, 416: swearing in Parliament, 436: future prospects—a prediction, 516: the cost of gunpowder, 616.
Economist.—Over-government and taxation, 136: increase of pauperism and crime, 456: destruction of the potato crop in Ireland, 636: the Paris insurrections, 656: large and small farms in Ireland, 696.

Examiner.—The invasion bugbear, 10; Louis Philippe, 156; Guizot's version of the revolution, 176; our corrupt electoral system, 236; Schleswig-Holstein, 296; a German empire, 336; legislation for Ireland, 356; Association for the Suppression of Commerce, 375; the Irish bubble, 436; Slavonic Nationality, 456; the African blockade, and the slave-trade, 515; the Short-time Act, 536; the sugar question in a nutshell, 553; Cavagnac, 572; the O'Connor Land Scheme, 595; railway accidents, 696; Italy and Austria, 716; Lord Brougham and the press, 816; the war with the Boers, 856; the railway screw on the public, 876; the Pope, 936; the Cape Governor, and the Kafir fool, 998.

Glasgow Examiner.—Householders, and universal suffrage, 416.

Hoeitt's Journal.—The national defence mania, 54.

Leeds Mercury.—Bill for nullifying municipal corporations, 136; Centralization, the Public Health Bill, 236; failure of the negotiations between Government and the National Society, 776; the West Riding election, 856.

Leeds Times.—The West Riding election, 856.

Manchester Examiner.—Antagonistic precipitations of Reform, 396; the real enemies of France, 896.

Manchester Times.—Episcopal jobbery, 37; need of another Reform Bill, 176; "consistency" of Lord John Russell, 196; the coming European peace, 217; the debate on the "Derby day," 396; naval expenditure, 736.

Norfolk News.—Tenant-right, 876.

Patriot.—The Centralizing Health of Towns' Bill, 297; the great alternative—Mr. Kay Shuttleworth, or the bishops, 316; the Amended Public Health Bill, 416; designs of the Irish Roman Catholic priesthood, 677; Dr. Hook, and his "apostate" curate, 736; restriction of the Conservative party, 896; the priest power in France, 937.

Standard of Freedom.—New plan of agitating for Reform, 736; our military legislators, 796; more about our military legislators, 876; Louis Napoleon's history, 977.

Spectator.—Louis Philippe, 176; the lingering plea for capital punishments, 196; need for reform, 216; our own revolution, 260; the practical man, 276; our meddling foreign secretary, 316; degeneracy of the House of Commons, 375; Russell on aristocratic privilege, 476; the garbling of official papers, 496; the Irish Encumbered Estates Bill, 536; popular movement for colonization, 556; official skulking, 596; dangers of the north-west passage at home, 636; Lord John's expedition to Ireland, 677; promised reform in the conduct of public business, 696; the Protestant party, 755; an European Congress, 776; good in everything, 816; the mistake of the Irish patriots, 836; art in the palace, 876; retail politics, 936; death of Ibrahim Pasha, 956; change perplexing kings, 998.

Times.—How the present income-tax works, 157; a sign of the times, 176; new radical organization, 277; the civil war in Paris, 477; the fall of Buckingham, 616; the civil war in Hungary, 716; the cholera, 797; General Cavagnac's defence, 916; claims of an Irish poor-law Union for assistance from the Irish government, 956.

Western Times.—The Irish Church, 566.

Yorkshireman.—The York election, 396.

Spirit of the press on the enlargement of the Nonconformist, 114.

on the French Presidential election, 917.

PARLIAMENTARY DEBATES.

The West India question, 86, 319, 458, 469; Jewish Disabilities Bill, 87, 102, 238, 338, 397; Mr. Annet's monster motion, 83, 137, 156, 200; Landlord and Tenant (Ireland) Bill, 99, 118; New Zealand Constitution Bill, 102; Health of Towns' Bill, 102, 338, 378, 458, 598; tea duties: trade with China, 102; election committees, &c., 104, 120, 158, 173; Roman Catholic Relief Bill, 118, 177, 418, 559; The Bank Charter Act, 118, 633; diplomatic relations with Rome, 118, 159, 639, 651, 653; the budget, 119, 139, 158; naval and military expenditure—secret committee, 120; the window-tax, 137; expenditure of the country and income-tax, 115, 137, 139, 157, 177, 198, 218; the new houses of Parliament, 157; the Minutes of Council and National-schools, 158; Irish Poor-law, quarter-acre clause, 177; Harwich election, 197, 218; medical relief for paupers, 197; friendly societies—the land scheme, 198; extension of the income-tax to Ireland, 198; the naval estimates, 199, 399, 617; Irish tenant right, 217, 250; more bishops, 217; game-laws, 217, 439; slave-trade squadron, 218; the ecclesiastical commission, 233; public economy, 237, 559; the army estimates, 237, 559; affairs of Italy, 238; state of Ireland, 238, 578; Frost, Jones, and Williams, 250; the late Rajah of Sattara, 250, 678; the chartists, 250, 252, 276, 419; Crown and Government Security Bill, 250, 272, 278, 299; the Jesuits, 279; business of Parliament, 279; the Alien Bill, 279, 319, 338; the writ for Derby, 279, 418; Schleswig Holstein, 280, 299, 338; elective franchise in Ireland, 319; the Spanish question, 338, 373, 419; law amendment, 338; borough of Stamford, &c.; Navigation-laws, &c., 399, 418, 440, 459, 610; Parliamentary Reform, Mr. Hume's motion for, 373, 458, 517; abuses of cathedrals and collegiate churches, 673; Places of Worship Sites (Scotland) Bill, 378, 439, 559; Borough Elections Bill, 379, 537, 556, 579, 598; pensions, 379; miscellaneous estimates, 399, 580, 618, 637, 651; Lord Ashley's motion on the juvenile population and emigration, 412, 439; riotous assemblies, 419; colonial chaplains, 440; borough corruption, Leicester, 457, 517; a writ for Cheltenham, 469; the missing despatch, 471; Encumbered Estates (Ireland) Bill, 493, 556; Horsham Election Bill, 517; Irish repeal, 517, 577; the sugar duties, 518, 556, 579, 598, 633; Sunday trading, 537; Public Works (Ireland) Bill, 537; business of the session, 538; rum duties, 538; suspension of the Habeas Corpus Act, 557; Mr. Horsman's motion on church property, 573, 597; colonial government, 577; charitable trusts, &c.; redress of Irish grievances, 579; the ballot, 593; Mr. Ewart's motion on taxation, 599; our continental policy, 637; Vancouver's Island, 638, 652; national education, 639; admission of Dissenters to the universities, 639; the Regium Donum, 648; the Irish Regium Donum, 651; supplementary financial statement, 652; Mr. Disraeli's review of the session, 678; prorogation, 674.

Division Lists.—Income-tax, 159; punishment of death, 200; Crime and Government Security Bill, 299; Lords' minority on the Jewish Disabilities Bill, 400; Mr. Hume's motion on parliamentary reform, 519; Irish finances, 580; English Regium Donum, 660; Irish ditto, &c.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

THE REFORM MOVEMENT.—The National Alliance, 20, 98, 180, 219; the movement in Leicester, 253; conference of Radical Reformers, 253; meeting at Sheffield, &c.; union of the middle and working classes, 256; meeting at Birmingham, 273, 297, 318; the People's League, 273, 336, 387, 453, 460, 533, 550, 641; meeting of Reform members, 280; Mr. Dawson's address, 281; meeting at Manchester, 313; at Edinburgh, 297; Nottingham, 298; Bailie Stott's motion in the Edinburgh Town Council, &c.; the new party in the House of Commons, &c.; conference at Manchester, 317; meeting at Leicester, &c.; at Leeds, 318; Bradford, &c.; the press and the new Reform movement, 333; conference at Herbert's Hotel, 336; progress of the movement, 337, 357, 377, 397, 413, 417, 437, 461; conference at Newcastle, 357; meeting at Glasgow, 433; letter from Mr. Hume, 492; address of the People's League, 576; St. Luke's Reform Association, 589, 738; state of reform in Edinburgh, 673; Mr. Cobden and freehold qualification, 738; state of parties in Norwich, 898; Norwich Electoral Association, 998.

THE NATIONAL DEFENCES.—Meeting at Bristol, 21; at Southwark, 35; lectures, 40; letter from Mr. Cobden, 54; meeting at Leeds, &c.; in the Tower Hamlets, 55; at Wakefield, &c.; at Birmingham, 71; Gloucester, 82; Worcester, &c.; the committee, &c.

FINANCIAL REFORM.—The Liverpool Association, 296; reform of the pension list, 600; the royal household, 710; the royal palaces, 738; aristocratic pensioners, 741; public works and buildings, 796; financial reform tracts, 815; expenses of the House of Commons and Government offices, 860; ex post of our taxation system, 878; meeting at Liverpool, 897; the woods, forests, and estates of the Crown, 900; association formed at Leith, 973; ditto at Paisley, 978; taxation, 980; Mr. Cobden's plan, 996.

PUNISHMENT OF DEATH. 39; effect of death punishments, 51; scene at an execution, 98; meeting at the London Tavern, 166; legal strangling, 220.

MR. VINCENT'S LECTURES.—Halifax, 1; Deal, 64; Dover, 81; Coggeshall, 201; Carlisle, &c., 220, 229, 791; Whitehaven, 201; York, 229; Sheffield, 247; Banbury, 622; Cambridge, &c., 636; Coggeshall, 721; Cockermouth, 791; Wigton, &c.; Bidestone, 998; Christchurch and York, 959.

THE PEACE MOVEMENT.—League of Universal Brotherhood, 7, 74, 176; address from the Peace Society, 19; meeting at Manchester, 128; at the Hall of Commerce, 159; address from Birmingham to Bordeaux, 208; proposed congress in Paris, 461; the peace convention at Brussels, 697, 716, 728; the peace protest at Waterloo, 758; meeting in Exeter-hall, 832; deputation to Lord John Russell, 841; address of the peace congress to the governments of Europe and America, 855; conference at the Hall of Commerce, 857; meeting at Birmingham, &c.; at Manchester, 858; lectures at the Hall of Commerce, 908, 932; the peace congress committee, 952; the arbitration movement, 973; meeting at Newark, 973.

THE CHARTIST MOVEMENT.—Meetings, 171, 200, 213, 240, 438, 570; the demonstration at Kennington Common, 259; the Chartist Convention, 233, 253, 257, 281; the petition, 280; the Chartist Assembly, 311, 351. The Chartists and Repealers 438; Arrest of Ernest Jones and others, 437; the Chartist convicts, 532; the disturbances at Bradford, 533; apprehension of Dr. McDonnell, 540; rescue of a Chartist at Bradford, 542; arrests in Scotland, 580, 590; the Chartist conspiracy, 633, 660; the prisoners, 676, 799; apprehensions at Hyde, 700; arrest of Mr. Barker, 702; disclosures relative to the spy system, 733; the trials at Edinburgh, 873, 899, 916; the Ashton Confederates, 998.

EDUCATIONAL MATTERS.—The lectures at Crosby-hall—by Mr. Barnes, 114; Mr. Wells, &c.; Dr. Hamilton, 146; Rev. A. Reed, &c.; Mr. Miall, 147. The education question in Scotland, 7; education in Wales, 11, 35, 50, 128, 146, 668; Lancashire Public School Association, 35; Minutes of Education and their working, 40, 631; training schools at Cheltenham, 67; High Wycombe school, &c.; the normal school at Brecon, 73, 99, 327, 632, 749; the Voluntary School Association, 167; normal school of the Congregational Board of Education, 489; meeting to promote the cause of education in Wales, 527; Parliamentary grant to Roman Catholic schools, 556; examinations under the Government scheme, 708; new British day-school, Bognor, 710; evidence before the Committee of Council on Education, 748, 800; the Wesleyans and the Educational Committee, 813; diocesan training school, 856; Oxford educational reform, 876; the National Society and the Committee of Council, 884, 932. Popular Education—Mr. Curwen's lecture, 893; school gardens, 913; the National Society's schools, 956.

ELECTION INTELLIGENCE.—Devises, 132; Waterford, 152; Carlisle, 189; Lancaster, 189; Lincoln, 189; Monmouth, 209; Aylesbury, 209, 240; Derby, 209, 239, 241, 673, 681; Horsham, 209; Harwich, 240; Bewdley, 273; York, 372, 373, 376, 400; North Cheshire, 413; Sligo, 533; Bolton, 673, 693, 973; Leicester, 681; Cheltenham, 681; the West Riding, 833, 873, 877, 893, 897, 911, 913, 933, 938, 953, 957, 978; Leominster, 938, 979; Liskeard, 958, 979; Truro, 979.

RAILWAY MATTERS.—Railway over the Menai Straits, 89; opening of the Wakefield and Pontefract line, 229; Conway tubular bridge, 298; traffic returns, 1847, 376; opening of the Waterloo terminus, 472; opening of the Great Southern and Western (Ireland) railway, 500; reduction of fares on the Caledonian line, 532; the North Western railway and their engine drivers, 593, 601, 621, 628, 633; the three companies, 753, 860; second tubular bridge over the Conway, 791; the Shrewsbury and Chester railway opening, 791; the South Western statement, 830; general news, 879; loss on railway property, 893; remarkable tunnel, 912.

IRELAND.—Altar denunciations, 12, 51, 98; reunion of parties, &c.; disarming of the peasantry, &c.; strange scene in a chapel, 34; agricultural improvements, 50; the special commission, 66, 81, 731; division among repealers, 66; state of the country, &c., 81, 113, 170, 213, 272, 292, 312, 532, 560, 592, 620, 660, 680; the United Irishman, 98; effect of the French news, 152; St. Patrick's day, 201; arrest of the leaders of the confederation, 212; progress of disaffection, 241; the council of three hundred, &c.; preparations for an outbreak, 261; the trials for sedition, 273, 261, 381, 400, 630, 631, 731, 759, 779, 792, 819, 830, 858; riot at Limerick, 313; retirement of Smith O'Brien, &c.; arrest of Mr. Mitchell, 361; conviction of do., 400; departure of do., 410; reconciliation, 411; the Irish League, 432; retirement of John O'Connell, 472; the Irish Felon, &c.; the treason press, 500; arrest of the proprietors of the Felon, 521; arrest of Mr. Duffy, &c.; seizure of the Tribune, &c.; the insurrectionary movement, 569; the clubs suppressed, &c.; rewards offered, &c.; capture of Mr. O'Brien, 592; arrest of Meagher, O'Donoghue, Maurice, and Leyne, 620; biography of Mr. O'Brien, 621; arrival of Lord John Russell, 680; renewed disturbances, 719; the rejected letter, 779, 792; sentence of death on W. S. O'Brien, 780; revelation respecting the rebellion, 879; the writs of error, 899, 919, 999; general news, 899, 941, 999; the "Godless Colleges," 919.

THE CHOLERA.—371, 720, 797, 820, 839, 903, 913, 973, 989; official instructions for its treatment, 732; judicious advice, 759; notification of the Board of Health, 779.

CASUALTIES.—Loss of the "Avenger," 24, 65, 97; loss of the "Snake," 34; fatal accident on the London and South Western Railway, 35; fire in the Burlington Arcade, 48; accidents on the Great Western Railway, 65, 350, 719; loss of the "Nabob," 298; accident on the Caledonian railroad, &c.; death of Mr. Dakin, 327; boiler explosion and loss of eleven lives, 411; The General Life and Fire Assurance Company, 417; curious coincidences, 418; murder of a turnkey, 433; wreck of the "Ariel," &c.; eleven colliers killed, 482; omnibus accident, 489; poisoned by postage-stamps, 519; death from the sting of a bee, 527; distressing accident at Inverness, 580; fire and loss of life in London, 603; collision on the London and North Western line, 637; burning of the "Ocean Monarch," 661, 681; a clergyman drowned, 668; accident to Mr. Stephenson, 671; accident on the London and North Western line, 673, 693; Parliamentary return on railway accidents, 688; drowned in wine, 692; death of a young lady from a fall, 693; death of a miser, 698; fire in Whitechapel, 712; remarkable escape, 726; extraordinary succession of accidents, 742; burning of a Wesleyan chapel at Islington, 760; fall from a balcony, 763; singular occurrence at Merthyr, 771; singular fire and death, 801; suffocation in a box, 818; results of excessive smoking, 819; accident on the York and Newcastle line, 833; fire at Camberwell, 838; a lady poisoned by mistake, 850; death from chloroform, 869; collision on the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway, 870; collision on the York and Berwick line, 890; loss of two emigrant ships, 899; death of Rev. T. Baker, 948; accident on the Humber, 958; accident on the Eastern Counties Railway, 972.

COURT AND PERSONAL NEWS.—163, 202, 321, 240, 262, 302, 341, 361, 381, 402, 421, 411, 462, 481, 500, 522, 541, 562, 582, 622, 641, 662, 682, 711, 741, 782, 781, 801, 821, 840, 862, 880, 900, 920, 942, 960, 982.—Accouchement of her Majesty, 202; the Orleans exiles, 241; arrival of Prince Metternich, 302; Louis Philippe at Claremont, 402; Prince Albert in Yorkshire, 541; Louis Philippe's private pictures, &c.; pensions, 562; the Queen's visit to Scotland, 682, 689, 721, 741; royal etchings, &c.; return of the Queen from Scotland, 762; humanity of the Queen, 781; the Queen and Prince Albert in the Court of Chancery, 840, 882; Prince Albert and the Prince of Wales, 941; marriage of Sir Henry Lytton Bulwer, 960.

CRIME, &c.—Suicide of a man and his wife, 4; a thief killed while committing a robbery, &c.; the Milford murders, 6; the murders in Lincolnshire, 7; execution of Thomas Sale, 21; execution of Reid, 25; suicide of Sir John Mildmay, 35; murder in St. James's park, 86; execution of Harriet Parker, 111; respite of Annette Meyers, 167; attempt to murder a family, 269; attempt at suicide by Thomas Steele, 299; murder of a miser, 472; murder in Newcastle-on-Tyne, 482; burglary at Pately-bridge, 539; suicide of Dr. Wells, 541; murder at Cheltenham, 556; at Manchester, 571; Swansea, 610; the poisonings in Essex, 668, 721, 749; youthful depravity, 687; suspected poisonings in Essex, 760; a female housebreaker, 761; murder at Bolton, 771; execution of M. Wheeler, 830; confession of a murderer, 839; suicide of Lord Middleton, 857; crime in Durham, 868; suicide of a clergyman, 870; murder at Cardiff, 896; murder at St. Leonard's, 920; the Stanfield-hall murders, 941, 962, 968; burglary and robbery, 953.

LAW AND POLICE INTELLIGENCE.—The Tottenham tar-barrel case, 19; a lawyer's bill, 64; newspapers can be legally lent on hire, 86; the Duke of Brunswick's suits, 101; Bunn v. Lind, 115; select law reports, 120, 162, 240; the Queen v. Latimer, 213; the Bishop of Manchester v. Guttridge, 292; the Earl of Chesterfield v. Duncombe, 311; the Bethnal-green rioters, 453; the Chartist leaders, 456; the minister and the bill-broker, 501; the trials for sedition, 520; the law of marriage, 517; the Blackbrook Convent case, 564, 582; sentence of death on a woman, 609; killing hares, 688; the law of bankruptcy, 691; the Chartist trials, 739, 759; incitement to drunkenness a punishable offence, 771; the court for the trial of criminal affairs, 853; case of the Baroness St. Mart, 875, 899, 943; the Baintree church-rate case, 913; home-made wills, 967; sedition and blasphemy, 1,002. — Miscellaneous Cases. — 561, 582, 700, 721, 740, 840, 862, 943, 972.

NECROLOGICAL NOTICES.—The Earl of Powis, 35; Isaac Disraeli, 57; the Earl of Moray, &c.; Mrs. Backhouse, 88; the Archbishop of Canterbury, 97; Joseph Taylor, Esq., 104; Sir William Gosset, 221; Lord Ashburton, 361; the Princess Sophia, 402; Dr. Payne, 448, 453; Benjamin Goodman, Esq., 456; Thomas Steele, 461; Rev. Daniel Gunn, 481; Rev. Dr. Hamilton, 548; Edward Baines, Esq., 601, 610; George Stephenson, 622; Capt. Marryat, &c.; Alderman Burd, 661; Lord George Bentinck, 737; Rev. D. Russell, 743; William Burd, Esq., 760; the Earl of Carlisle, 781; Thomas Gray, the railway pioneer, 812; Rev. Thomas Price, (Carnuanwa), 919; Lord Melbourne, 920; Sir John Barrow, &c.; Charles Buller, 937.

SCIENCE AND ART.—Curious discovery, 7; improvement in the Davy lamp, 123; how to transfer engravings to white paper, 237; lightning, 240; desiccating process, 370; the Catamaran life preserver, 472; balloon experiments, 481, 852; India-rubber pavement, &c.; remedy for the smoke of a lamp, 490; experiments in chloroform, 512, 680; daguerrotype likenesses, 521; cure for the deaf and dumb, 571; safety from lightning, 609; the British Association, 641; theory of vision, &c.; atmospheric railway, &c.; remarkable cure of deafness, 821; the trigonometrical survey of London, 859; the electric light, 920; Banvard's moving panorama, &c.; the magnetic cure, 980. General Intelligence, 641, 722, 779, 821, 860, 920, 950, 999.

TRADE AND COMMERCE.—The quarter's revenue (January), 4, 25; do. (April), 261; do. (July), 497; do. (October), 780; bankruptcies in Scotland in 1847, 25; British exports, 441; the sugar duties, 507; consumption of opium in England, 878; prospects for the winter, 912; official accounts for November, 932. Money Market and Commercial Intelligence, 143, 184, 204, 224, 243, 264, 284, 304, 324, 343, 384, 404, 424, 464, 484, 505, 525, 545, 565, 585, 604, 625, 665, 684, 704, 724, 741, 765, 783, 804, 824, 843, 864, 884, 903, 924, 944, 963, 983, 1,003.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.—Munificent bequests, 1; the tea duties, 3, 57, 79; Mr. Cobden in the West, &c.; fires in London in 1847, 4; anti-game-law meeting at Edinburgh, 7; causes of the prevalence of influenza, &c.; nominal and fictitious votes in Scotland, 11; railway riots in Scotland, 21; the national defences, 21, 36; Mr. Hullah's pupils, 32, 99; improvement of operatives, 33; sanitary measures, 34; enlargement of the Nonconformist, 36, 114; interesting reunion, 38; augmentation of the royal artillery, 39; duel extraordinary, 40; cost of baths and wash-houses, 49; the Government survey of London, &c.; Thomas Carlyle on Ragged Schools, 51; pauperism in Cheltenham, 56; great free-trade banquet at Manchester, 69; increase of mendicancy, 72; the public health, &c.; a disclosure, 89; the public health, 98; the Whittington Club, 99; retirement of Sir R. Peel from the leadership of the Conservatives, 99; extraordinary express, 115; a specimen of wasteful expenditure, 117; conveyance of parcels by post, 121; anti-income-tax demonstrations, 129, 133, 162; anti-game-law committee, 132; riots in Glasgow and Edinburgh, 153, 171; in London, 170; in Manchester, 171; the ex-royal family of France, 180; the Chinese junk, 201, 487; the arctic expedition, 216, 746; Mr. Burritt's lecture on the Philosophy of Labour, 219; Nonconformist soirée at Glasgow, 228; English workmen expelled from France, 232; meeting of Irish peers and members of Parliament, 252; disclosures of Louis Philippe's portfolio, 271; present to Mr. Cobden, 271; legacy duty, 290; Temperance Conference at Manchester, &c.; at Edinburgh, 532; Distresses in Nottingham, 292; meeting of the Anti-Bribery Society, 295; Mr. Cochrane's pauper procession, 302; the Cobden Testimonial fund, 316, 397; meeting on board a convict ship, 319; meeting of the trades of London, 320; public petitions, 320; the prince and the labourer, 369; distressed condition of Bradford, 376; the West Indies—meeting at the London Tavern, 402; emigration to Australia, 407; mob disturbances, 421; scene in Wombwell's menagerie, 430; the currency, 465, 476; twenty-one persons poisoned at an ordination dinner, 432; Mr. F. O'Connor's land scheme, 436, 467, 615, 691; the Midland Freehold Land Association, 444; testimonial to John Bright, 451; the 819th workmen in trouble, 457; a subterranean fire, 461; interesting discovery, 462; suppression of Sunday trading, 468; tricks of impostors, 472; unexampled generosity, 476; county and borough voters, 477; London University, 490; the bridegroom and the railway belle, 492; vegetarianism, 501; emigration—official reports, 507; the potato-disease, &c., 547; meeting of friends of the Nonconformist in Dundee, 507; sea-fencibles, 512; the territory of the late Rajah of Sattara, 519; a colonial penny postage, 529; who does the House of Commons represent? 539; the Royal Agricultural Society, 539; romance of real life, 540; an elephant scene, &c.; a golden dream, 547; soirée to Mr. Vincent, at York, 549; improvement in building societies, 550, 729; English Homoeopathic Association, 552; ragged schools, 556, 637; the Canadian Land and Railway Association, 567; the bullionists, 588; senate of the University of London, 589; Cromwell and Clarendon, 590; arming of the police, 595; city improvements, &c., 680, 921; untimely prorogation of Parliament, 599; Poor Removal Act, 601; cruel hour, 619; Smith O'Brien's captor, 621; scene in a court, 621; alarming state of the manufacturing districts, 622; a water-spout, 630; our national taxation, 636; extraordinary escape, 640; statistics of mendicancy, 642; the sale at Stowe, 659, 722, 770; the Quadrant colonnade, 660; new description of wheat, 661; speech of M. Guizot, 671; the slave-trade, 672, 688; early closing, 677; prorogation of Parliament, 682; new regulations for steam-boats, 687; population of London, 692; the New Forest robberies, 696; statistics of the penny postage, 697; notices of motion for next session, 697; public business of the House of Commons, 697; the "Great Britain" steam-ship, 699; emigration, 700; Jews and coroners' juries, 712; annual report of the registrar-general, 712; unfortunates who do not receive diamond snuff-boxes, 715; the London Temperance League, 716; sanitary experiment, 720; increase and drilling of the police, 724; Parisian National Guards in London, 741, 839; election of lord mayor, 751; emigration of pauper children, 751; East India House, 756; perilous adventure, 758; sale of wives, 770; steam navigation to Australia, 771; Lord George Bentinck's attendance in Parliament, 777; forty-shilling freeholds, 781, 860, 950; starving a jury, 791; a strange discovery, 796; fatal effects of prosperity, 797; the great sea serpent, 802; Parkhurst prison, &c.; lord mayor's day—the city franchise, 820; the Aurora Borealis, 820; interpidity of a young lady, 821; narrow escape of Lord John Russell, 821; rates of postage to the colonies, 830; a trace of fifteen years, 836; woman self-detracted, 836; monument to Lord George Bentinck, 836; the Queen and Prince Albert in the Court of Chancery, 840, 862; treaty between England and China, 850; the Orphan Working School, 850; newspaper affairs, 859; the mayors of Liverpool and the cradle, 857; the October quarter's mortality, 857; new mayors, 875; lord mayor's day, 878; amalgamation of the Board of Stamps and Taxes with the Excise, 880; testimonial to Mr. Strutt, 881; improvement of working men, 895; imposture, 897; vagrancy, 898; literary institutions in the West of England, 912; change of Ministry, 914; the soldier who robbed the National Guard, 919; Sir James Duke, 920; well-merited retribution, 921; English and French taxation, 930; increase of National expenditure, 930; English and the game-laws again, 932; Lord Ashley's conference with the London thieves, 932; our villages, 933; ruinous cost of the army and navy, 912; singular fulfilment of a dream, 911; anti-slave-trade meeting at Rochester, 949; a gamekeeper committed for killing a poacher, 949; the Daily News, 955; Smithfield cattle-show, 956, 958; who is Sir Culling Eardley? 966; extraordinary accouchement, 966; bungling legislation, 970; meeting of the National Temperance society, 978; testimonial to W. Morris, Esq., 988; a house-keeping club, 993; Mr. Gillilan's lectures, 993; the Christmas tree at Windsor castle, 993.

FOREIGN NEWS.

FRANCE.—Death of Princess Adelaide, 4; surrender of Abd-el-Kader, 4; public corruption, 55; financial embarrassments, 61; M. Thiers on Italian liberty, 79; the reform debate, 104; agitation and warlike preparations, 112; prohibition of the reform banquet, 115; insulte in Paris, 115; the revolution, deposition of the King, and proclamation of a republic, 130, 133; the late royal family and ministers, 133; history and progress of the revolution, 147; sketches of the leading members of the provisional government, 148; progress of the ex-king and queen from Paris to London, 149; incidents of the revolution, 150, 168; financial difficulties of the republic, 167; the labour question, 167, 191; foreign powers, 168; progress of the republic, 173, 209, 230, 247, 269, 300, 510; Ledru Rollin's circular, 190; National Guards' demonstration, 190; suspension of cash payments, 191; discharge of workmen, 191; miscellaneous items, 191, 530; Lord Brougham a French citizen, 269; plotting of the Communists defeated, 269; the elections, 293, 320; the National Assembly, 339, 360, 370, 391; insurrection in Paris—arrest of the ring-leaders, 353; dissension in the ministry, 373; impeachment of Louis Blanc, 407; the supplementary elections, 431; debate on the banishment of Louis Napoleon, 433, 449; the new constitution, 449; another insurrection, 477, 498; debate on do., 479; General Cavaignac president of the council, 497; the new ministry, 497; death of the Archbishop of Paris, 498; the funeral procession, 510; death of M. de Chateaubriand, 511; Louis Philippe's private property, 551; state of parties, 553; regulation of clubs, 567; report on the late insurrection, 599, 611, 629; debate on the report, 657; flight of Louis Blanc and Cavaignac, 658; revised draught of the new constitution, 669; M. de Lamartine's defence of himself, 669, 689; debate on the constitution, 613, 717, 749, 771, 798, 817, 851; the Paris elections, 713, 730; arrival of Louis Napoleon, 733, 749; reconstruction of the ministry, 798; the presidential question, 837, 851, 870, 890; proclamation of do., 893; Lamartine's vindication, 916; the charges against Cavaignac, 916; the presidential elections, 951, 953; election of Louis Napoleon, 969; the new ministry, 969, 991; proclamation of the President, 991.

SPAIN.—Impeachment of Salamanca, 33; return of Espartero, 33; insurrection in Madrid, 360; dismissal of the English ambassador, 392; recommencement of civil war—the Montemolinet insurrection, 511; birth of an Infanta, 750; surrender of the insurgents, 871; opening of the Cortes, 992.

ITALY.—The Pope's decree for the organization of the Ministry, 24; ill-feeling between the Austrians and the Milanese, 34; the massacre in Milan, 56; insurrection in Sicily, 56, 65; reign of terror in Lombardy, 65; constitutions promised, 104; the Sardinian and Tuscan constitutions, 113; the reign of terror, 152; insurrection in Lombardy, 211, 231; the new Roman constitution, 211; war between Sardinia and Austria, 213, 247, 531; revolution in Venice, 231; defeat of the King of Sardinia, 253; defeat of the Austrians, 271; declaration of Sicilian independence, 321; massacre at Naples, 392; surrender of Peschiera, 408; defeat of the Austrians at Grotto, 408; provisional government formed at Rome, 568; Austrian success, 569; evacuation of Lombardy, 591; surrender of Milan, 611; the Austrians before Milan—letter from a lady, 613; mediation of Great Britain and France, 629; outbreak at Leghorn, 670, 690; insurrection in Parma, 690; invasion of Sicily, 693; bombardment of Messina, 718; an Italian constituent assembly, 872; assassination of Count Rossi and successful insurrection at Rome, 918; flight of the Pope from Rome, 952; the provisional government, 992.

SWITZERLAND.—Persecutions in the Canton de Vaud, 24; measures against the late Sonderbund, 105; reply of the Diet to the Great Powers, 113; revolution in Neuchâtel, 562; death of Zerkovka, 512; the Concordat, 718.

AUSTRIAN GERMANY.—Reception of the French news, 151; state of the country, 169, 202, 321; revolution in Austria—flight of Prince Metternich, 192; conduct of the government, 209; war declared against Piedmont and Rome, 248; the new constitution, 301; another revolution, 370; departure of the Emperor, 373, 392; another outbreak in Vienna, 409; bombardment of Prague, 480; the regency, 513; arrival of the Archduke in Frankfurt, 590; insurrection in the Danubian provinces, 531; return of the Emperor, 629; the Archduke and his marriage, 630; riots in Vienna, 718; manifesto from the Regent, 750; successful insurrection at Vienna and flight of the Emperor, 789; retreat of Jellachich, 817; siege of Vienna, 838; capitulation of do., 851, 853; barbarous conduct of the Imperialists, 871; conviction and execution of Robert Blum, 891; manifesto of the Archduke on the affairs of Prussia, 917; the campaign against Hungary, 917; abdication of Ferdinand and accession of Francis Joseph as Emperor, 931.

PRUSSIA.—Riots in Cologne, 151, 751; riots at Berlin, 192; conflict between the military and the people, 210; declaration of German nationality, 211; state of the country, 248, 300; opening of the National Assembly, 392; seizure of arms by the people, 409; return of the Prince of Prussia, 431; abolition of capital punishments, 568; meeting of the Vice of the Empire and the King of Prussia, 629; defeat and resignation of the Cabinet, 690; new ministry, 730; submission of the King, 751; discussion on the constitution, 851; appointment of a new ministry and removal of the Assembly, 872; the crisis in Berlin, 890; dissolution of the National Assembly and proclamation of a new constitution, 951.

THE GERMAN STATES.—The new constitution, 213, 249; resolutions adopted at the Diet, 233; defeat of the republicans, 293; bombardment of Freiburg, 321; opening of the National Parliament, 371; proceedings of do., 494; election of the Archduke John, 498; new ministry, 612; articles of law on religious liberty adopted in Parliament, 669; refusal to ratify the armistice with Denmark, 691, 713, 718; insurrection in Frankfurt, 730; foreign policy of the government, 817; debate in the Assembly on the execution of Blum, 892; resignation of the Austrian members, 969; the Church and State question, 969.

DENMARK AND SCHLESWIG-HOLSTEIN.—Death of King Christian VIII., 65; new Danish constitution, 81; separation of Schleswig-Holstein, 112; the Schleswig-Holstein question, from a correspondent, 232; commencement of the war, 248; progress of do., 340; defeat of the Germans, 409; battle of Flensburg, 432; the armistice, 551, 659; conclusion of do., 670.

UNITED STATES.—The President's message, 5; prospect of peace, 113; treaty with Mexico, 152, 169; death of John Quincy Adams, 169; land reform, 180; scraps from American papers, 179, 213, 601, 760, 821, 881, 899; reception of the French news, 249; the anti-slavery movement, 262, 670, 881, 918; attempted escape of slaves, 390; general intelligence, 380, 412, 670, 719; ratification of the treaty, 480; nomination of General Taylor, 480; Irish sympathizers, 551, 670; the liberty league, 601; slavery in Oregon, 601; a private execution, 690; illustrations of American slavery, 712; the free-soil movement, 756; gold fever in California, 799; the Presidential election, 892, 918; the President's message, 992.

COLONIAL INTELLIGENCE.—War in New Zealand, 34; defeat of the Caffres, 51; failures in the East Indies, 56; results of the elections in Canada, 105; termination of the Caffre war, 132; revolt in Mooltan, 432, 552, 751, 892; inundations at Jamaica, 499; defeat of the Mooltan insurgents, 569, 630; trial, conviction, and imprisonment of Mr. Little in Jamaica, 633; stopping the supplies in Jamaica, 731; disastrous hurricane in the West India islands, 731; insurrection in Ceylon, 751; another insurrection at the Cape of Good Hope, 773; defeat of the Dutch Boers at the Cape, 838; progress of the war in the Punjab, 941, 970.

VARIOUS.—Serious riots and expulsion of Lola Montes in Bavaria, 112; murder of six Englishmen in Canton, 113; alliance between the Northern powers, 151; popularity and able conduct of the King of Belgium, 168; measures of reform in Holland, 302; abdication of the King of Bavaria, 211; fate of a demonstration, 231; manifesto of the Emperor of Russia, 248; the Russian army, 271; the new Constitution for Holland, 301; treaty between Russia, Sweden, and Denmark, 313; outbreak at Cracow, 310; insurrection in Hayti, 410; the cholera in Russia, 413, 532; outbreak in the French West India, 479, 511; entrance of a Russian force into Wallachia, 511; Russia and Persia, 511; revolution in St. Croix, 614; the cholera in Egypt, 630; the slave-trade in Brazil, 670, 839; destructive fire at Constantinople, 690; slavery in Porto Rico, 690; the Hungarian army, 751; the Turks in Wallachia, 799; opening of the States-General in Holland, 818; sketch of Jellachich, 819; death of the Shah of Persia, 819; death of Ibrahim Pacha, 941; accession of Abbas Pacha to the Viceroyalty of Egypt, 970; the slave-trade on the Coast of Africa, 992.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The College of Preceptors, 4; the circulation of the Nonconformist, 4, 34, 49, 64, 189, 227, 269, 949; religious condition of the people in the Principality, 32; the Baptist Missionary Society, 49; capital punishments, 49; war, 63, 78; the Balafrée meeting and church-rates, 64, 167; the suffrage, 112; taxation, 112; Dissenters in India, and the Law of Marriage, 189; a clerical job, 208; government support of Juggernaut, 208; Church and State in France, 227; the House of Siam, 227; graduated taxation, 227; Church property, 227; the House of Commons, 227; the meeting at St. Paul, 246; stop the supplies, 246; the Irish Regium Donum, 289; suggestions for giving publicity to right principles, 289; bequests for religious purposes, 289; Dissenting ministers and the working classes, 290; the Merthyr Chartists, 312; the Reform question, 312; the Bishop of Exeter and the Rev. James Shore, 331; the claims of minorities in an equitable system of representation, 331; the Scotch and Irish unions, 331; prize essays on the Sabbath, by working men, 331; the extent of the suffrage, 332; prize essays on the Sabbath, and political rights, 331; a cure for commercial calamity, 331; the People's League meeting, 390; Sites (Scotland) Bill, 399; colonization in Australia, 399; the ballot, 430; caution, 430; Law v. Religion, 468; the Free Gospel Churches, and the Anti-state-church Association, 468; civic consistency, 468; Frederick Douglass's North Star, 489; union of Dissenting colleges, 489; Parliamentary Representation, 508; justice to the industrious classes, 509; the College of Preceptors, and centralization, 509; the suffrage, 529; theological colleges in the United States, 529; church-rates at Melbourne, 549; the Cathedral, 567; education of the infant poor, 589; persecution in Honduras, 589; the Slavonian mission, 609; literary jurisprudence, 628; the Regium Donum, and Dr. Rees, 648; free labour produce, 668; the Annuity-tax prisoners, 668; Mr. Shore's case, 668; the potato rot, 668; the new Congregational chapel at Reading, 688; Harris, the impostor, 688; the Regium Donum—Important Distinction, 688; ordination, 688; the Missionary college at Calcutta, 688; the cathedral service, 709; income of Dissenting ministers, 709; disuse of slave-grown produce, 709; colonial misgovernment—New South Wales, 711; Mr. Cowan, M.P., on Nonconformity in Scotland, 728; seamen's Christian Friend Society, 728; the Regium Donum—proposed declaration, 747; British and Foreign Sailors' Society, 747; Public Health Act and Centralization, 771; reform worse than immorality, 790; the Bishop of Cape Town, 790; the Cape Hydra, 791; the Government grant to Jaggernath's Temple, 791, 830; the annuity-tax question, 791; Irish Endowment and the Catholic bishops, 812; manhood v. freehold, 812; an impostor, 813; Irish endowment and the Regium Donum, 830; Irish endowments and British dissent, 849; injustice of the present system of education, 849; Irish assassinations, 869, 887, 919; Oxford municipal election—civil disabilities of Dissenters, 887; slavery in America, 908; children's chapels, 949; Dissenting ministers and children's chapels, 967; suggestions to improve the state of the funds of the Anti-state-church Association, 989; university reform, 989.

THE WORKING-CLASSES AND RELIGIOUS INSTITUTIONS.—869, 888, 909, 930, 950, 967, 990.

LETTERS.—From the United States, 140, 691, 761, 861, 956.

British Guiana, 140, 172, 220, 249.

Paris, 195, 315, 352, 411, 450, 775, 795, 976, 995.

Canada, 249, 282, 380, 486, 671, 711.

Jamaica, 332, 581, 671, 711, 879.

Edinburgh, 493, 636, 633, 645, 673,

698, 733, 761, 793, 831, 859, 716, 971.

Ireland, 613, 653.

Ceylon, 773.